In this year—1954—Topeka celebrates the first century to pass since its founding. In that century it has grown from a few scattered houses and stores on the plains of Kansas to a metropolis of people and industry. In that century several generations—our ancestors—have lived and died. Their hands tilled the soil, constructed the railroads, built our roads, schools, and churches, and founded the culture of our midwestern civilization. With their hands these people, our fathers, have built our country and life as it is today. Now it is up to us, the youth. With our hands we mold the centuries

ADVISORS

Much like members of a football team, each doing his own share but joining with the others in helping to score the goal, is the administration.

Working together in harmony, their objective is to co-ordinate academic and social activities in T.H.S. in order to maintain an efficient, well-run high school. At the same time, they help mold better character and personality in tomorrow's citizens.

FACULTY

Behind our seemingly thousands of hours of study is the never tiring faculty of Troy. Their responsibilities consist of not only class work but also extra duties and extra curricular activities. These sometimes mean more work and worry than daily instruction.

Not until the school years' end do we realize the trials and tribulations endured by the teachers in fulfilling their purpose.

We feel the loyalty and hard work of the faculty of THS deserves all the gratitude and appreciation that can be given them.

REMINISCENCES

A pep assembly is led by three unusual cheerleaders—Jim Fisk, Minter Brown, and Jim Lowson.

Students swarm toward a chartered bus on their way to a Trojan football game.

An experiment in hearing is conducted by Jerry Donnelly, Barbara Johnston, Clarence McKay, Carolyn Meyer, and Wayne Neeley, members of Harold Dilley's psychology class.

STUDENTS TO COME

SENIOR CLASS

Our senior year—our last year of high school—the whirlwind of caps and gown measurements—a successful senior play—the Junior-Senior Prom—the formal parties—the hub-bub of college applications. All of these remembrances are held in the Sunflower, a faithful recorder of our high school memories.

We seniors, soon to be graduates, have been filled with eagerness, relief and regret as we were swept forward to May—to our own graduation, and after that to college, careers, and homes.

So well remembered is the amazement of the size of the school building in our sophomore year. "Brigadoon", "Father of the Bride", "Arsenic and Old Lace" highlighted the entertainment field of 1952.

The junior year—that "lucky" feeling. Remembrances of "Double Door", "Green Grow the Lilacs", and "The Vagabond King" along with our learning of team sportsmanship were of interest to all of us throughout 1953.

Our senior year—our senior class—ever to be remembered. Honored by the Junior-Senior Prom, idolized by the lower classmen, granted privileges of every sort, helped connect the bewilderment of high school graduation with relief of studies.

Now, rather reluctantly we must bid farewell to all those wonderful things which we associate with T.H.S. Activities, too numerous to mention, will be dear to us in the many years ahead.

On to the future, to take our place in the outside world, go us, the seniors of the Class of '54.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Minter Brown, Tom McCoy, Peggy Webb, Shirley Andrish, Dick Oxandale, and

JUNIOR CLASS

Much like the center of a big sandwich are we juniors—but after all, the meat is the best part. Feeling like an important link in a great chain were we middleclassmen, for we served as intermediates between our new sophomore friends and the higher seniors to whom we looked for inspiration and patterns from which to mould our next year—our senior year.

With the aid of our class sponsor, Mrs. Hazel Lingo, our much looked-forward-to Junior-Senior Prom glistened with the ideas, entertainment, and "everything" that we gave it. We sponsored two formals and a play, all of which will be remembered by many Trojans for years to come.

With this year we gained a whole wonderful volume of knowledge, gotten from the books we faithfully carried home every night. We feel ready and proud as this year ends to take over in our new roles of seniors—the class of 1955.

Norvelle Brooks, Ronnie Goff, Gretchen Frank, Mary Nell Newsom, Jayne Allen, Carter Umbarger, and Don Casson.

Well known throughout the halls of Troy were the sophomores with the wide-eyed wonder that only "Scrubs" can have.

Although new to THS school life, they took an active part in school affairs as they plunged wholeheartedly into the compaigning for elections.

Having their own cheerleaders helped cheer the teams on to victory.

Their delight at having individual pictures in the annual could not be equaled and to demonstrate their approval, most of them bought Sunflowers.

Sophomores proved their all-around talent when presenting their own Sophomore Party program. This party was an event that the up and coming class of 1956 will remember for a long time.

FOR THE KIDS SOPHOMORE PARTY

Grass skirts, hula dancers, and leis took the spotlight February 27 in the student cafeteria as the Sophomore Party dominated the scene.

South sea islands was the theme of the annual party as palm trees, "volcanoes," and leis furnished the decorations.

The program, under the direction of Mimi Wood, featured varied acts ranging from pantomimes and psychoanalysis to song and dance solos.

The THS dance band furnished the music for the 400 guests to dance by, and a movie was shown in the auditorium for those not wishing to dance.

Janice Dailey, Bev Pollard, and Sharyn Blanka re-enact a bit of the roarin' twenties.

Mary Norris, Barbara Reeves, and Janet Viar do a pantomime.

Refreshments are served!

THE BIG EVENT-

The All-School Party, to many students, is the high point of the school year. It is then that the highest honor possible is bestowed upon two students, boys and girls from all classes take part in the program, and the Christmas spirit prevails over

Each and every student has a part in electing the King and Queen of the All-School Party and their attendants, first in the primaries in homeroom, and then the finals. This year the ten students were not made public until the World came out on Friday, and suspense was high for two days while the World had the best-kept secret of the school year.

Then the night finally arrived. The program was set in a ski resort on Christmas eve. Each act was interesting and well-performed as they ranged from an imitation of Rudolph Valentino to "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend." Then, when even the most reluctant of people had realized what the Christmas spirit was, the moment everyone was waiting for arrived. The corsage bearers filed down the aisle, and John Casson, Vice-President of the Student Congress, introduced the attendants. Their happiness shone in their faces as each couple received the applause of the audience.

THE YOUNG IN HEART

ALL-GIRL PARTY

"Sad Sack" was the favorite at the All-Girl Party this year as everyone came dressed as her favorite comic strip character.

A function of the Senior Girls' Council, the party included a fine program of entertainment led by Dick Tracy. Little Lulu and Tubby, Raggedy Ann and Andy, along with Sad Sack, won prizes for costumes. The girls ended their evening with refreshments of cokes and cookies.

- 1. Comic strip characters line up for the judging.
- 2. Mary Nason whirls in her contribution to the All-Girl Party.
- 3. Various expressions take form as the girls observe the different acts on the program.

Wayne King startles his rich relative, Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet, with his tales of Harvey.

"HARVEY"

Elwood P. Dowd, portrayed by Wayne King, provided the initial comedy to the Masque and Wig play, presented with vigor and enjoyment. One of his favorite lines, "What did you have in mind?" seemed to bring the height of amusement to those on stage as well as the large audience.

Charlie's, Eddie's, Bessie's Barn Dance, and Benny's Drive In were some of Elwood and Harvey's hangouts, as the action all took place in the Dowd family mansion and the waiting room of Chumley's Rest Home.

The play was centered around the life of Elwood P. Dowd, who turned everything into an uproar by introducing the invisible, six-foot rabbit, Harvey, to everyone. Veta Simmons, Elwood's sister, finally became so frustrated that she decided to put Elwood into a sanitarium to cure him of his rabbit "mania." Elwood was taken to Chumley's Rest Home, and after Dr. Sanderson talked to both Veta and Elwood, he came to the conclusion that it was Veta who needed committing and not Elwood. Elwood even convinced him of Harvey's existence; in fact Dr. Chumley began to see Harvey too.

Under the competent directorship of Miss Gertrude Wheeler, "Harvey" was made one of the best comedies THS has had in a long time.

THE BARRETTS OF WIMPOLE STREET

Dixie Viar, Rachel Pickett, Kay Firestone, and Beverly Baird model their costumes.

The Junior class play, The Barretts of Wimpole Street, was presented on April 26th. The presentation was entirely enjoyed by the audience, as well as the persons working with the play.

Elizabeth Barrett, along with her brothers and sisters, is ruled over by her father. The play has a very dramatic ending as Elizabeth and Robert Browning provide the romantic atmosphere.

Having a largely talented cast, the suspenseful story kept everyone on the edge of their seats. It was, by far, one of the best plays at THS in a long time under the direction of Miss Gertrude Wheeler.

Roger Brown prepares to play his guitar for a square dance as Lou Ann Oberhelman watches. Others in the cast of "Green Grow the Lilacs" were Doug Wallace, Carolyn Condron, Jim Boling, and Nancy French.

Ralph Seger speaks to Carol Crosby in "Double Doors." Others in the cast included Shirley Andrish, Wayne King, and Carolyn Stoneburner.

MASQUE AND WIG-THESPIANS

Sponsored by Miss Gertrude Wheeler, the Masque and Wig Club is Topeka High's basic dramatic society. It is composed of all students who have participated in the cast or staff of a school play. Members of the play production and stagecraft classes are also eligible to join.

The highest honor in dramatics at Topeka High is to become a member of the National Thespian Society. To qualify for membership in Thespians, a student must have had at least 70 speeches in plays or have held a major staff position. Each year an initiation dinner is held honoring the new members. The Gertrude S. Wheeler Troop No. 210 was proud to have 21 members this school year. The officers chosen at the beginning of school were: President, Ralph Seger; Vice-President, Wayne King; and Secretary-Treasurer, Shirley Andrish. The faculty sponsor is Miss Gertrude Wheeler.

STUDEN?

Our very active Student Council has again turned in a creditable performance as the main student governing body of THS.

As leaders of the whole school, these officers were closely connected with its personality and activities.

Sponsored by J. M. Hill, and presided over by John Casson, Student Congress Vice-President, the council was truly democracy in action.

INDUCTION DAY

N GOVERNMENT COUNCIL

Projects such as presenting assemblies and varsities, Student Congress Week, All School Party, directional markers on the stairways and revising the election rules and Honor "T" points were highlights of their program.

Our Student Council is a member of the National Associations of Student Councils and several members attend the Student Council Conference held in Lawrence each year.

Third Row: Chug Tuttle, Harry Turner, Arnold Grundeman, and Dan Garrison. Back Row: George Swank, Jim Wolfe, Phil Baker, Gale Wolfe, Fred Jones, and Charles Swartz.

Performing many duties of a service nature about the school is the ever-to-be-counted-on Senior Boys' Council.

The members, one elected from each homeroom, serve as hosts at open house, assist with college day plans, and the sophomore induction assembly, as well as other activities, and often vote financial assistance to other student organizations on the need basis.

Teaming with the Senior Girls' Council on many occasions, this group of senior boys, guided and sponsored by Leonard Moulden, Dean of Boys, respect and fulfill their responsibilities and deserve the praise they fully earn.

Sponsoring the "Senior Shake-up" was one of the main projects of the Senior Girls' Council this year. Led by President, Lou Ann Oberhelman and Secretary, Jayne Bronson, these girls were of great service to the school. One regular member and an alternate is chosen at the beginning of each school year from the Senior homerooms. This year the girls were hostesses at Open House, sponsored the Sugar 'n Spice letters, served punch at the Parents Council, sponsored the All-Girl Party, sponsored a coke party for new girls, sponsored a Christmas program for Topeka State Hospital patients and wrapped gifts and took cookies to them, served at Vespers, helped sponsor College Day, and carried on other various projects for the betterment of the school.

SENIOR GIRLS' COUNCIL—Sitting: Rachel Pickett, Kay Berg, Darlene Beeman, Jayne Bronson, Lou Ann Oberhelman, Lynne Gerlach, Jayne Ferrin, and Joan Klopfstein. # WITH GREAT FANFARI SCHOOL

With the first six weeks of school came the elections—a means of becoming better acquainted with Kansas government, after which T.H.S. government is modeled.

The voters were faced with much indecision, for all candidates were of the best material, but with well-conducted campaigns to influence the voters, the competition was soon narrowed as the primaries came and went.

Bright posters, blaring bands, big hats, and balloons marked only a few of the campaign items used to win the eyes and the x's of the voters.

ND MUCH FUROR ELECTIONS

As the finals drew near, interest centered around the race for president and vice-president of the student congress as George Swank and Ralph Seger on one ticket and Wayne Rolley and John Casson on the other battled for the majority of votes. Resulting was a split decision as Swank and Casson emerged the victors.

Smoothly guiding the elections through its various phases were Joel Sterrett, election commissioner; Ellen Gier, election clerk; and Grace Van Tries, faculty advisor.

PLAY CADETS AND USHER CLUB

Taking tickets and leading guests to their seats in the auditorium were the duties of the usher club members who appeared at their posts an hour before each performance.

The girls, donned in formals, and the boys, in dark suits, performed at every dramatic function and served as door keepers for the three general sessions of the Kansas State Teachers' Association in the fall.

If an usher has reported and served at every performance and attended each club meeting throughout the year, two points towards an Honor T may be earned.

Miss Evelyn McCauley sponsors the play cadets, which are on hand at all plays to take tickets and hand out programs.

Selected from recommendations of honesty, personality, and intelligence by junior high school principals, are the sophomore proctors of Mrs. Fern Taylor, Topeka High's registered nurse.

After completing their sophomore year, the girls may continue if they desire to be her proctors in their junior year.

Stressing courtesy and confidence, Mrs. Taylor trains her able assistants to answer phone calls, carry call slips to students, and to perform other duties.

Ever prepared to aid the nurse in treating ailing Trojans are these proctors, a branch of the T.H.S. proctor system.

Representative of student assistants in school libraries throughout the state are these thirtysix helpful Trojans who assist the members of the library staff: Miss Jean Robertson, Mrs. Naomi Cowger, and Miss Lois Fergus, in serving the student body and faculty.

Among the duties assigned to them are checking out books and magazines and assisting in processing books and shelving them as well as the daily task of keeping track of entering students. The boys lend helping hands when class sets of books are transferred by books trucks to the various rooms of the building

THROUGHOUT TROY PROCTORS

Treading through the halls, assisting the administration in many ways, are the office proctors. They run countless errands, taking call slips, memos, and special bulletins as they efficiently accomplish their jobs.

Lurking around every corner are E.

L. Fink's hall proctors. They are always willing to give you the right directions and to keep order. Headed by three

JUNIOR KIWANIS KEY CLUB

Arnold Grundeman, John Shields, and Ralph Seger sell student directories as Wendell Brown, Kiwanian, looks on.

As a junior Kiwanis club, the Key Club sponsored by Leonard Moulden, Dean of Boys, did many useful things of a service nature about the school. The boys sold peanuts in the annual Kiwanis pet parade and turned over the profits to help underprivileged children. Over 1,200 student directories, compiled by the club members, were sold as one of the first money-raising projects of the school year.

Guest speakers, invited by the boys, appeared on several of the meeting programs and discussed various subjects which the club members were interested in.

Officers elected for the year were: John Casson, President; Jim Miller, Vice-President; George Swank, Secretary; and Wayne Swenson, Treasurer. Jim Miller was elected District Governor, and Paul Eldien was elected District Secretary-Treasurer.

ON THE JOB GAME WORKERS

Checking coats at school and parent-teacher functions is the main job of the ever-efficient check stand workers. Under the leadership of Mr. Shoyer, the girls went through the year without any mix-ups.

Through the efforts of Mr. Shoyer and his varsity cadets, the varsities this year were a success and everyone had a good time. Those chosen from a list of volunteers served as ticket sellers, ticket takers, operators of the public address system, sellers of refreshments and directors of conduct on the dance floor.

The services of the game cadets contribute greatly to the success of our home football and basketball games. With Jack Dean and Clarence Mullenix as supervisors, the cadets attend all games to distribute programs, sell and take tickets.

BEHIND THE COUNTERS CONCESSION STAND

SNACK BAR WORKERS: Jean Fleming, Barbara Waller, Velma Fleming, and Shirley Williams.

Far too little credit is given to the Snack Bar Workers, who so willingly help every night after school. Starting at 3:15 and working until 4:00, these helpers sell candy bars, popcorn, pop, gum, school supplies and various other things to the students. The Snack Bar Workers are sponsored by Charles Shoyer.

The Concession Stand is always available for those who feel the need of refreshments at football or basketball games. Half the fun of a game is the popcorn and candy bars. These and many more items were supplied to both the Trojans and the visiting spectators by the Concession Stand Workers, another group sponsored by Charles Shoyer. They were on the job every game to make it more fun for everyone.

The first year students joined after the first semester which made the club considerably larger. Most of the members subscribed to a French newspaper.

The officers elected at the start of school were: Jayne Ferrin, President; Dana Dickerson, Secretary-Treasurer; Lou Ann Oberhelman, Program Chairman; and Lylah Nyman, Chef de chant (leader of the singing).

LATIN CLUB—FRENCH CLUB

Topeka High is honored to have the largest Junior Classical League in the state. With Mrs. Helen Sutherin as sponsor, the Latin Club again this year proved to be worthy of its recognition, as it started off the year by winning first prize with a Helen of Troy float.

The Latin Club held a banquet in March where everyone came dressed in Roman style. In the spring, they had Open House for all students from the Junior High schools that were interested in Latin.

Each class elected officers and the five presidents were as follows: Linda Larson, Barbara Barnett, Jim Miller, Tom Brown, and Harold Geer.

Topeka High should be very proud of its Latin Club and its fine sponsor.

WITH CHEERFUL HELP JUNIOR RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Red Cross Council at Topeka High was again very active this year as many programs and projects were planned for Winter Veteran's Hospital, the Topeka State Hospital, and for the crippled and homebound children in the community. Led by their president, Harry Turner, the group sponsored and presented various things at the school, including a dance in April and an assembly on Armistice Day. The Valentine party for the closed wards at Winter Veteran's Hospital highlighted the services of the council.

Officers of the Red Cross Council for the 1953-54 year were: Vice-President, John Casson; Secretary, Carol Crosby, and Treasurer, Janice Mitchell. The president, Harry Turner, was elected as a district representative of Red Cross Councils.

TROJAN BAND

Under the direction of George Neaderhiser and Robert Hallman, the Trojan band and orchestra performed an outstanding job. The marching band drilled at all home football games, entered in pep parades, and serenaded Troy's homecoming queen in an impressive ceremony.

The orchestra performed at various assemblies, as did the band, and at other functions. Their repertoire ranged from the classics to the modern. The band caused a minor sensation when they played "Dragnet". The school year was climaxed for the large student organizations when they performed their skillfully executed numbers at the spring concert.

George Neaderhiser directs a practice session of the band.

SONG OF

This year Topeka High again produced an outstanding operetta. The one chosen for the musical production was "Song of Norway," with lyrics and musical adaptions by Robert Wright and George Forrest. The operetta, which involved the life of Edvard Grieg, composer, was directed by Elbert Fly, C. J. McKee, George Neaderhiser, and Robert Hallman.

The operetta told the story of Rikaard Nordraak, a young poet, who had written a beautiful poem about Norway which Edvard Grieg, the young composer, had promised to set to music.

The countess, Louisa Giovanni, an opera star, offered Edvard a job with her on her opera tour. A year later Nina and Edvard were married, but he never got around to writing the music for Rikaard's poem. When Rikaard died, Edvard and Nina went back to Troldhaugen, away from the life of the cities.

The student director was Lyle Landis. Costumes were handled by Darlene Beeman, Janice Fernstrom, and Kerstin Barger. Publicity was under the direction of Susan Covington and Dale Barham, and Nancy Howard directed the properties.

Ralph Seger is attracted by Gretchen Frank's charms.

MADRIGALS -- CHOIR

The finest singing talent in the music department of Topeka High is the Madrigal singers. This group, carrying a heavy schedule on their shoulders, is under the direction of Elbert Fly. Their musical reputation is known throughout Topeka, as well as the rest of the state. They have entertained at many assemblies and civic organizations.

The Choir, largest mixed vocal group, presents many assemblies of a religious nature, although one of their best-liked was a musical interpretation of a baseball game. Gowned in their gold and black, the Choir has entered many contests, music festivals, and entertained many organizations.

SENIOR GLEES

The Boys' and Girls' Senior Glees have presented numerous memorable performances throughout the school year. These groups were chosen last spring by the music department and are now under the direction of Elbert Fly.

Both glee clubs played major parts in the operetta and presented our students with lovely Christmas and Easter programs.

Their excellent singing before civic clubs, junior highs, and grade schools and our own THS was a pleasure for all audiences.

All the music courses are good foundations for musical careers and for personal pleasure.

During school time, the Trojan dance band was formed and its members were initiated for the first time this year during school time. They added something special in the way of music as they played for all varsities following the games.

in the way of music as they played for all varsities following the games.

Adding sparkle to the Trojan band were the drum majorettes who performed in parades and at football games. Their skill and coordination were especially fine this year as they acted as a unit instead of individually. Nancy Howard was the drum major.

STAGECRAFT AND CREATIVE WRITING

Students, interested in writing as a career or just as a way to express their thoughts, improved their style of writing under the instruction of Miss Mabel Fry. Creative writing is a one semester course.

Under the direction of Quentin Prosser, the boys in the stagecraft classes carry on the backstage work. These boys work long and hard to make every play, operetta, etc., a success. They hold such positions as stage manager and assistant stage manager on the dramatic productions. Their support toward the success of the play is equally important with the other staff members, although they receive little recognition. The scenery and lighting of our excellently presented productions this year deserve a vote of praise.

Through the efforts of the stagecraft class, Jerry Snell and Gretchen Frank sing a duet in old Norway.

"Assignment sheet is lost! Stories aren't in! Tomorrow is deadline day!" These are just some of the typical woes heard in room 219 before a publication of an issue of The World.

The staff stayed patiently, working until sunset, proofing, reading copy, working out make-up, and always The World seemed to appear every Friday during third hour.

Ad salesmen visited Topeka merchants, while reporters cheerfully ran down stories, each contributing his share to the finished project. To The World staff, the paper they worked so diligently on was a "work of art".

The second semester started off with a bang and the spring World staff right with it. With fingers flying over typewriter keys and reporters turning up here and there, the World re-

Becky Stafford and her staff of competent workers managed to make the World appear on Friday mornings of every week. Sometimes it seemed a miracle that the World should appear on time, but always it did.

HANDFUL OF MEMORIES SUNFLOWER

Heading the editorial staff for this year's Sunflower was Shirley Williams, editor, who began her preparations for the yearbook early in the summer.

Preparing schedules for all of us to follow in writing copy, setting up pictures, laying out pages, and many other détails, major and minor, that go into the process of editing an annual, Shirley proved to be very capable of handling her responsible job.

Sharing the responsibilities of transforming academic, social, and athletic events into a book of memories was Lou Ann Oberhelman, assistant editor, and Vivian Casper, associate editor, aided by Miss Dora Remley, advisor.

Willa Swift, photography editor, spent much time and effort in preparing pages with individual sophomore and junior pictures, while Monty Gravenstein specialized on the sports section. Velma Fleming, as copy editor, contributed her work to the contents of the yearbook. Faced with the financial burden of securing advertising to help finance the Sunflower were Harry Turner, Jr., business manager, who, with the aid of John Cleland, assistant business manager, Brad Sheafor, associate business manager, and a crew of energetic ad solicitors, did a fine job on the business side of the staff.

Ronny Briscoe and Janis McKemey, cartoonists, added the finishing touches to our long hours of work.

But here it is and we're proud of it—your 1954 Sunflower. We've had our reward of satisfaction in a job well-done. Now it's up to you to enjoy it as every year adds a deeper richness to its contents.

STATE CHAMPIONS DEBATE

For the third consecutive year, under the coaching of J. M. Hill, the Trojan debaters won the state championship crown. This win climaxed another successful invitational season with the team of David Pantle, Becky Stafford, Jim Miller, and Joel Sterrett winning again for the third year. Seven trophies were won, including more first places than ever before. David and Becky opened the season with a win at Russell, followed the next week by a first at Shawnee-Mission by Jim and Joel. The next tournament found David and Becky the winners at Hutchinson. At Emporia and Wyandotte the team lost to Hutchinson in the semi-finals, but regained their winning streak with a first at the District, and topped the field by a margin of three wins at the state. In the inexperienced division, Carol Faulconer and Alice Peele, sophomores, won one second place trophy at Olathe.

Topeka High finished out one of the best football seasons in many years, as they boasted a record of eight wins against one loss and were rated second in the AP poll.

The Trojans, coached by Bob Briggs and Bill Schnebel, displayed spirit and hustle all season long. The overall yardage in rushing for THS was 1,762 yards, for an average of 4.6 yards per carry.

Opening their season against the Highland Scotties, with a decisive 40-0 win, Topeka met their toughest test of the 1953 season when they traveled to Lawrence for their annual encounter with the Lions. Lawrence fell before the men of Troy 7-6 for the first time in nine seasons.

Wichita North was the next foe for the Briggsmen and their potent punt return play. The Indians didn't play dead to the men of Troy, as Topeka squeaked by, 7-6.

Opening their home stand against Wichita East's Blue Aces, Troy suffered their only loss of the 1953 season, 14-13.

Homecoming marked the THS vs. Wichita St.

Marys tussel. Don Luttrell rambled for 208 yards from scrimmage as the bewildered Shamrocks looked on. The final score stood 33-0 in favor of Troy.

Manhattan fell to Topeka 27-14, as the Briggsmen had to come back from a 14-13 halftime deficit to win. Wyandotte was in the midst of a gala homecoming, until the Briggsmen hit town with their potent offense and their equally good defense. The men of Coach Ed Ellis were lucky that Coach Briggs called off the first string and THS won handily, 26-0.

Returning home the next week, Ward fell before the black and gold onslaught, 33-0. Buzzy Watts led the Troy defensive play against the Cyclones.

To close out their 1953 season, THS made a touchdown in the last few minutes of play to down a stubborn Shawnee Mission team, 7-0.

Even though they were rated number two in the state by the AP poll, the Briggsmen of 1953 will be rated by many as the Champs of Kansas football for 1953.

Heading the coaching staff for the sophomore program is Chet Davenport, former THS head basketball coach, and assisting him is Leo Thomas who works with the line.

The Sophs gained wins over Atchison B squad twice, 14-13 and 12-7. Lawrence Sophs fell 19-14. Hayden was next to fall, 19-0. Seaman was the last to stumble to the Sophs, as they were beaten 20-0.

Highland Park beat the scrubs twice for the only two blots on their schedule.

Playing one of the toughest schedules in many seasons, the Trojan JV's gained 5 wins against 1 defeat. The Junior Varsity head coach was Vernon Hayes and Marvin Bayless took charge of the line.

In the season's opener, the reserves dropped their only contest as they fell to Lawrence, 6-0. Emporia fell to the Hayesmen, 25-0 and 19-0. Highland Park proved to be little competition as they were beaten 26-0, and they also forfeited to the B's once. Manhattan also forfeited one contest to the B squad.

HOMECOMING

Honor and regular pep club members were lined up to form a hollow T, making an archway with their pompoms through which the queen and her attendants were to pass on their way to the throne. The band had formed a big heart around the throne with a balloon rising from every band member. All was ready—then with the appearance of the royal cars on the track, the long awaited identity of the queen and her attendants became visible. The football team had elected Janice Mitchell as queen of the thirteenth annual homecoming, and Lynne Gerlach and Jayne Bronson, as attendants.

The royalty was escorted to the throne by George Swank, president of the Student Congress, Gary Heath, president of the Senior Boys Council, and Jim Miller, Speaker of the House of Representatives. Giles Thielman, assistant to the superintendent of schools, crowned the queen with a tiara of white carnations and daisies, and she was presented with a bouquet of daises and chrysanthemums. Corsages were presented to her attendants.

At the homecoming varsity following the game, Queen Janice and her attendants were presented footballs autographed by the members of the team.

Coach Howie Shannon, guided his Troy cagemen to nine straight victories this year before the men of Troy fell to the Wyandotte Bulldogs 51-48 on the Kansas Citians' court.

During the regular season, THS dropped only four tilts—two each to Wyandotte and Emporia.

The Shannonmen stopped the Shawnee-Mission Indians twice for the first time in post war play.

The Trojans finished their regular season with an 18-5 record. They won the regional AA tournament by beating Leavenworth 67-55 and walloping Atchison 77-54 in the finals on Troy's home court.

This won a berth for the Topeka High five in the state AA tournament, which was held at Manhattan on March 18, 19, and 20. In the first game Topeka High clobbered the Newton team 62-46. The next day they were besieged by over one hundred telegrams from exuberant THS fans.

In the semi-finals Troy held a lead over the Wyandotte Bulldogs until the fourth quarter. In the most tense moment of the game Steve Luebbe made two free throws with ten seconds to go, putting Topeka one point ahead. Then, with two seconds to go, Topeka fouled. Wyandotte made both free throws, winning the game 56-55. In the finals Troy was matched with the Emporia Spartans. The Trojans won the consolation game 56-54, and third place in the state. Two Topeka High cagers were chosen for the All-State team—Fran Siebuhr and Jerry Fink.

SECOND TEAM

Troy's basketball hopes for 1954-55 will be centered on the boys who have played B-team and sophomore ball this year. Coach Jack Dean of the B-team and Chet Davenport of the Sophs have urged their men on to many victories on the hardwoods for THS this year.

SOPHOMORES

QUEEN

QUEEN OF COURTS

When the band formed a heart and the Honor Pep Club made an arrow, the Trojan Queen of Courts was crowned. George Swank, John Casson, and Jim Miller, escorted the queen and her attendants. Jim Miller introduced Principal E. B. Weaver, who introduced Mayor Schnellbacher, who in turn crowned the queen. Corsages were given to the attendants and a bouquet of cut flowers were presented to the queen.

The parents were special guests at the game and the varsity. The three honored students—Ima Jean Clardy, Barbara Frager, and Elaine Pierce—had reserved seats in the cheering section. At the varsity the basketball captains presented the royal trio with souvenir basketballs.

SWIMMING — WRESTLING

Troy's two minor winter sports, swimming and wrestling, enjoyed two of their best seasons ever, as they produced teams which placed higher than usual in the state meets.

Swimming broke even this year, which is very good for Troy finmen. Six wins and six losses, and a fourth place finish highlighted the tank season. Coach Vern Hayes will have a good number of returning lettermen to boost Troy's swimming hopes next season.

Finishing one of their best seasons in several years, the Trojan grapplers, coached by Floyd Holcomb, racked up an 8-4 record and a state championship in the heavyweight class. Jerry Knight was the only Trojan to survive the state meet at Norton.

Six men placed in the state after pulling through the regionals: Bud Bromich, Jack Warner, Eli Arbaiza, Gary Owen, Don Newman, and Jerry Knight.

STATE CHAMPS

CROSS COUNTRY

Topeka's crosscountry team conquered all foes to win the state championship for the second straight year. Coach "Heavy" Erwin guided his squad through the 1953 schedule with Captain Lawrence Brady, Larry Youngdoff, Jesse Unruh, Julius Lincoln, Stan Ridgeway, and Dan Casson working on the first team.

Brady, Youngdoff, and Unruh participated in crosscountry for the last time this year, while Lincoln, Ridgeway, and Casson all return to strengthen Troy's hopes for next year.

The annual meet, which was held on the KU campus, was a wonderful spectacle, with the Black and Gold of Troy on top.

Erwin, Coach.

GOLF TEAM OF '54 Dave Curnutt, Harry Turner, Larry Breuninger, Gary Heath, and E. L. Fink, Coach.

GOLF

AND

TENNIS

Coach E. L. Fink's golf squad has finished out a very successful 1954 golf season. Harry Turner, Larry Breuninger, and Gary Heath, all three returning lettermen and former captains, carried the golfing load for THS.

The netmen, coached by Bob Briggs, have also finished out a successful season. Fred True and Winston Tilzey were the leading netmen of the 1954 season.

T CLUB AND MANAGERS

T-CLUB Front Row: Julius Lincoln, Jack Warner, Jerome Fleer, Fred True, Larry Breuninger, Raymond Miller, Lawrence Brady, Arnett Atkinson, Stan Ridgeway, and Robert Orr. Second Row: Tom Jovalis, Max Moore, Larry Tew, Tom Heath, Gary Heath, Lee Beaty, Jim Fisk, Don Erwin, Steve Luebbe, Dan Casson, and Marvin Bean. Back Row: Winston Tilzey, Tom McCoy, Gary Gettler, Tom Moore, Fran Siebuhr, Jerry Fink, John Cleland, Harry Turner, Buzzy Watts, Dick Devine, and D. L. Erwin.

The Trojan "T" Club again "came through with flying colors" with D. L. "Heavy" Erwin as the sponsor. The boys sponsored such things as the Sadie Hawkins Party, the Marques Haynes basketball game, various assemblies and varsities, and their annual spring dinner. They purchased glass backboards for the basketball games for approximately $375. The officers for the 1953-54 year were: Tom McCoy, President; Jim Fisk, Vice-president; Paul Dixson, Secretary-Treasurer; and Buzzy Watts, Sergeant-at-Arms.

ON THE GO GIRLS' GYM

Comprising a part of the required curriculum for sophomore girls is a year of physical education, under the instruction of Miss Pat Key and Miss Jeanne Cooper.

Beginning in the fall with archery, soccer, and hockey, which were played outdoors, the activities planned faded into volleyball, deck tennis, basketball, and social and square dancing in the gym when the weather turned cold. With spring came softball and a chance to exercise in the open again.

For the junior girls wishing to major or minor in physical education, a semester of modern dance, followed by a second period of badminton, basketball, and tennis is offered.

The girls often enter into competition in various sports to earn points for their Troy Jane awards.

Students glance up apprehensively, waiting for the volleyball to appear.

The "girls in green," otherwise known as Troy Janes, is the athletic organization for the girls of Topeka High. By participation in intramural sports, the members can work toward a pin, then a green sweater, and finally a pin guard. The girl each year earning the most points throughout her three years at THS, receives the honor of having her name on the bronze plaque in the girls' gym office.

The Troy Jane Board is composed of a representative from each physical education class and the Senior Leaders. They are sponsored by Miss Jeanne Cooper and Miss Pat Key. The board has charge of all the intramural sports which the Troy Janes sponsor.

Joanne Tindell was elected President, with Lou Ann Oberhelman as Vice-President, Pat McCluggage as Treasurer and Nancy Owsley as head of points.

In their white shirts and shorts, the Senior Leaders help the physical education teachers show the right technique in sports. Miss Pat Key and Miss Jeanne Cooper, girls' athletic instructors, choose the Senior Leaders from the senior girls who are interested in sports.

The girls' duties consist of taking roll, being referees, attending Senior Leader meetings, and assisting the teacher during class in showing techniques.

The white T in a black field, which appears in the cheering section at all games, is a time-honored Trojan custom. The Honor Pep Club is there at every game to spark the Pep Club and show the team their school is definitely behind them.

The Honor Pep Club is an honor organization. To be a part of it a girl must work in the regular Pep Club for one year, earning points by attending meetings, making posters, and going to the games in uniform. "Rat Day" is initiation day for the new members each year.

This organization, together with the regular Pep Club, keeps the yells going at THS and the school spirit high. Jeanne Tindell is the President, and Lynn Gerlach is Vice-President.

A-TEAM CHEERLEADERS—Phil McMullen, Ernie Tarwater, Jan Levenberger, Janice Mitchell, JoAnn Boies, and Carol Crosby.

CHEERLEADERS

"Pep" is the only word that could adequately describe the cheerleaders of Topeka High. The six A-team cheerleaders and the four B-team cheerleaders are chosen by the students in an all-school election.

The lively students who are always there yelling for the first team are Carol Crosby and Phil McMullen, who have been cheerleaders at THS for three years; Janice Mitchell and Ernie Tarwater, who have been there yelling for two years; and the first year pepsters, Jan Leuenberger and JoAnn Boies. The B-team boosters are sophomores Marla Leuenberger, Bonnie Becker, Dave Curnutt, and Bob Bohannon.
